

Children in the States NEBRASKA

September 2015

Child Population

466,609 children lived in Nebraska in 2014; 29 percent were children of color.

- 71 percent were White
- 17 percent were Hispanic
- 6 percent were Black
- 2 percent were Asian
- 4 percent were two or more races
- 1 percent were American Indian/Alaska Native
- <1 percent were Pacific Islander

Child Poverty

Nearly 1 in 6 ( 16.2 percent) of Nebraska's children were poor in 2014, a total of 74,414 children. ${ }^{1}$

- Nebraska ranked $16^{\text {th }}$ in child poverty among states. ${ }^{2}$
- 1 in 15 children lived in extreme poverty at less than half the poverty level.
- The youngest children were the poorest age group. Nearly 1 in 5 children under age 6 were poor; more than 2 in 5 of the poor children were extremely poor.

Children of color in Nebraska are disproportionately poor.

- Nearly 1 in 2 Black children, nearly 3 in 10 Hispanic children, and nearly 3 in 5 American Indian/Alaska Native children were poor in 2014, compared to more than 1 in 10 White children.

Child Hunger and Homelessness

Child poverty in Nebraska leads to unacceptable child homelessness and hunger.

- More than 3,000 Nebraska public school students were homeless in the 2012-2013 school year.
- In 2014, nearly 2 full-time minimum-wage jobs were necessary to be able to afford a fair market rent twobedroom apartment in Nebraska and still have enough left over for food, utilities and other necessities.
- More than 21 percent of children lived in households that lacked access to adequate food in 2013. Nearly 29 percent of children ages 10-17 were overweight or obese in 2011-2012. Nebraska ranked $21^{\text {st }}$ of 50 states in child food security and $19^{\text {th }}$ in percent of children overweight and obese.
- More than 18 percent of Nebraska children relied on the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) to meet their nutritional needs on an average month in FY2013.
- Nearly 91 percent of Nebraska children receiving a free and reduced-price lunch during the school year did not participate in Summer Nutrition Programs in 2014 - ranking Nebraska $42^{\text {nd }}$ of 50 states in ensuring that children have adequate summer nutrition.

Child Health

Although the majority of Nebraska's children have access to health coverage, that does not guarantee enrollment in coverage, jeopardizing their education and their future.

- In 2013, 88.1 percent of eligible children participated in Nebraska Medicaid or Kids Connection, Nebraska's Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP). In FY2013, a total of 165,038 Nebraska children ages $0-18$ were enrolled in Nebraska Medicaid, and 55,783 in Kids Connection.
- More than 25,000 Nebraska children ages 0-17 ( 5.5 percent) were uninsured in 2013. The state had the $19^{\text {th }}$ lowest rate of uninsured children among states.

[^0]- In 2012, 17,000 uninsured children ages 0-18 were eligible for Nebraska Medicaid or Kids Connection but not enrolled.

Early Childhood and Education

Lack of early childhood investments deprives children of critical supports in the early years and reduces school readiness.

- In 2013, the average annual cost of center-based child care for an infant was $9,100-24.4 percent more than the average annual in-state tuition and fees at a public four-year college.
- Nebraska did not have a waiting list for child care assistance in early 2014.
- On average, 45 percent of Nebraska's 3- and 4-year-olds were enrolled in public or private preschool from 2011-2013. Only 37 percent of children from families with incomes under 200 percent of poverty were enrolled.
- Nebraska's state-funded preschool program only met 6 of the 10 quality benchmarks set by the National Institute for Early Education Research in 2013-2014.
Nebraska's schools fail to educate all children, closing off a crucial pathway out of poverty.
- In 2013, 63 percent of Nebraska's fourth grade public school students were unable to read at grade level and 55 percent were unable to compute at grade level.
- 84 percent of Black fourth graders could not read at grade level and 88 percent could not compute.
- 78 percent of Hispanic fourth graders could not read at grade level and 80 percent could not compute.
- 93 Nebraska public high school students graduated on time in 2012, placing Nebraska $1^{\text {st }}$ among states. 65 percent of Black students and 93 percent of Hispanic students graduated on time compared to 93 percent of White students.
- Students who are suspended or expelled are more likely to drop out of school. During the 2011-2012 school year, 8 percent of Nebraska public secondary school students received at least one out-of-school suspension, placing Nebraska $14^{\text {th }}$ among 48 ranked states. For Black and Hispanic students, the percentages were 31 percent and 9 percent, respectively.

Children Facing Special Risks

Many vulnerable children need treatment, services and permanent families.

- In Nebraska, 3,993 children were abused or neglected in 2013-8.6 out of 1,000 children.
- On the last day of FY2013, there were 4,614 Nebraska children in foster care.

Too many Nebraska children are involved in the juvenile justice system.

- 12,198 children were arrested in Nebraska in 2012 - a rate of 6,103 out of 100,000 children ages 10-17.
- 669 children and youth were in residential placement in 2011.30 percent of the children in residential placement were Black, 14 percent were Hispanic, and 44 percent were White.
- 15 Nebraska children were in adult jails in 2013.
- Nebraska spent 1.9 times as much per prisoner as per public school student in FY2012.

Nebraska ranked $10^{\text {th }}$ out of 41 ranked states in preventing child and teen gun deaths.

- A total of 13 children and teens were killed by guns in Nebraska in 2013 - a rate of 2.5 out of 100,000 children and teens.
